

NEIGHBORS

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2010 | EDITOR: SCOTT ANDRON | 305-376-4528 | MiamiHerald.com/Neighbors

SE02 The Miami Herald

PHOTOS BY ALLISON DIAZ/FOR THE MIAMI HERALD

CREATING FOR A CAUSE

Above, Neo-Pop artist Ed King paints with the autistic children at the Carrie Brazer Center for Autism's Kendall Campus, 8790 SW 94th St. The collaborated artwork will later be auctioned at the center's fundraiser, Comedy for the Kids, Feb. 27 at the Eden Roc Hotel in Miami Beach. With King are Devante Jefferson and Daniel Vega. Right, Rex Gettinger puts the finishing touches on one of the paintings. The center serves children diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorders and other social and communicative disabilities from preschool to adulthood at its two campuses. For more information, call 305-271-8790 or cbc4autism.org.

